SHARED RELIGIOUS SITES IN LATE ANTIQUITY

Negotiating Cultural and Ritual Identities
in the Eastern Roman Empire

SCHWABE VERLAG

ReLAB

Series “ReLAB”

Editor: Francesco Massa

The series intends to study the Roman Empire as a “religious laboratory”, i.e., an intellectual space of development, production, and experimentation of new religious concepts. All volumes focus on the religious interactions that crossed the multicultural, multireligious, and globalized space of the Roman Empire, especially in Late Antiquity.

“ReLAB” includes part of the results of the research project “Religious Competition in Late Antiquity: A Laboratory of New Categories, Taxonomies, and Methods”, funded by the Swiss National Science Foundation and held at the Department of History of the University of Fribourg from 2019 to 2023 (<https://data.snf.ch/grants/grant/181185>).
